Antifa and BLM have taken over a small area of a couple blocks in Seattle a day ago and are announcing it to be "Free Capitol Hill" or the "Capital Hill Autonomous Zone - CHAZ". There are solid barricades on the road and the buildings have been claimed as property of CHAZ. The Industrial Workers of the World and The Communist Party of USA (yes really) have expressed official support. As you may expect this will be quite the show. So please anons, kickback relax, and enjoy the show :-)

The leaders of the zone are a suicidal tranny that apparently tried to kill him/her/itself earlier. Posted a message on twitter saying goodbye.
(https://twitter.com/anarchomastia/status/1270483223995224067) and a failed rapper nog that looted some ARs from the abandoned police station and threatened to shoot any "nazis" and police.

QRD:
>they are trying to farm by planting seeds in some soil they spread over the concrete >the nearby park will be used as a runway for gliders carrying supplies in case the city blockades them (supplies from China!)
>already infighting and arguing who is top on the oppression ladder >later in the day the commie terrorists stormed city hall (an official uncocked the door for them) and somehow believe the act of them standing in the building means they won something >after "storming" city hall and standing around they left proclaiming victory >the entire day was spent standing around in a circle listening to nigs and trannies insult white people on the mike >they watched some netflix after sundown and most people went home (promised to return)

>where is the police/NG/feds

The police stood down/left, pic related. Mayor is a cuck, the police chief is a nigger from Detroit and the city council are SJWs. All of them confirmed they will try to deescalate by defunding the cops and working with the community. Who will give the order? Unless Trump/feds do something the local authority is too scared. The antifags want bloodshed tho and Trump knows this.

>what's next

Pic is their expansion plan. A Whole Foods is close and an Amazon warehouse is several blocks away. Their plan for food is to just take over local grocery and food places and hope that those places keep restocking the shelves for them. Might face resistance if they go for the Orthodox Church, Russians and Eastern Euros don't play when it comes to churches.

>when your enemies are attacking you, do nothing or they win
-Mutt Zu, the Shart of War

It's fascinating that all these patriotic stories, Red dawn, Wolverine, Siege, Jericho, all those fantasies about a second civil war where true American spirit face the threat of communism... It was all a lie.

I get it. I really do. You will wait until they come for the suburbs. But in the end, does it really matters to preserve a few lives? Protecting your little neighborhood and your community? Will you live in a socialist country after that? Waiting for the State commissar to knock on your door?

Aren't symbols more important than your tranquility?

Doesn't this count as an insurrection?
>Trump threatens to bring in active duty under insurrection act
>Dems go crazy saying that's illegal this isnt an insurrection.
>Dems then literally make a breakaway state
>Trump now has legal clearance to send in active duty
What the actual fuck is going on?

So, this Autonomous Zone might remain in place until November and there might be more of them springing up in tolerant cities. Dems hands are tied because of they get run out there will be grumbling and potential loses in local elections

Unpopular opinion here:

Establishment of the CHAZ has shown a fundamental divide in maturity between the modern left and right. Those of us who have been here for a long time remember that the modern right only really got going in 2014-2015, certainly after Zimzam. In that time we have developed all the right rhetoric, but none of the irl will to power.

Take pic related, for example. He writes reams of content on how men should conquer cities and control events through sheer force of will, yet when a bunch of trannies unironically do this irl, he can only tweet about astroturfing

The sad reality is the Right still does not have the balls to act on its desires irl, so the Left have been allowed to roam free in accomplishing theirs. All this larping about the NWF for years and some basedboys have beaten you to the punch in like two weeks

They were so strong that it took the entire world to stop them from being united as one Volk

Yes and no. That is why I pointed out that they had help.
However, in order to even hold a flea-market, you need some form of organization. These shitlibs at least had that.
I recommend listening to the shitlib podcast "It could Happen Here" not so much for its content (the faggot who speaks knows less about civil conflict than most /pol/acks) but because he talks offhandedly about just how organized and connected they are.

Great point, here's the differences:

Left
- 60 years of marching through ALL public institutions, complete tacit support of leftist aims from catladies across the country
- Enforcement institutions pants-shittingly terrified of optics of stopping them

Right
- NO real public support
- The few times organized protests occured, every member was doxxed to hell and publically shamed/banned (except for the old /8/pol fed protests)

Good news?
Reality has a right-wing bias, having measurable testosterone levels gives you a right-wing bias. Chad zoomers are making their own incredibly redpilled memes and spreading them at the speed of light, and if these stinky soys keep pushing, we may actually get the reckoning we need and deserve sooner than later

Finally a sensible person on /pol/

We can't pretend we aren't all aligned in our interests. I'm a lolbertarian type, we can fight amongst ourselves whether the nazis are too authoritarian or not after we drive out the left

Its not organized. Police just basically just said "Fine, we'll leave if you won't. Good luck." and fucked off. Most likely they just ran out of tear gas or something, and now they're just watching these retards go full münster.

Niggers are always a tool for them in the end.

I bought a gun since I knew this was going to happen here too (it did), went to my parents house for a few days to convince them to do the same and my father started yelling at me like a tard and even flipped a plate of steaming ho soup of my fucking chest bc he said all I talked about was jews, niggers and killing communists.

It's so tiresome..

First rain is going to turn it into a muddy oil slick that washes away into the gutters.
To do what they are suggesting they would have to power wash the streets and then place sand bags to stop the water from taking the soil away. Then there's also the rats and pigeons to deal with.....
